Major Duties:

This position serves as a Regional Program Coordinator, providing liaison between Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSI) and agencies in the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

The USDA and the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) have formed a partnership to ensure the Hispanic community equitably participates in USDA programs, resources, services, and employment. USDA provides Regional Program Coordinators, or HSI liaisons, which are assigned to one or more campuses among the HSIs. This position is located in San Bernardino, California, and serves as liaison to up to 35 HSIs in southern California.

The incumbent will develop relationships and linkages between HSI institutions and the USDA to identify opportunities for partnering and increase participation in USDA programs. In addition, the incumbent will:

- provide occupational advice and expertise and guidance on agriculture and related scientific disciplines to faculty, staff, and students in order to enhance academic program development and counsel students on career choices;
- develop contacts and resources within the Hispanic community in the region in order to keep USDA policymakers current on relevant social, political, economic, and legislative issues.
- provide practical advice on qualifying and applying for USDA positions;
- develop contacts with USDA agencies and provide guidance to these agencies in the development of strategic plans to increase workforce diversity and improve recruitment efforts in the assigned HSIs.
- work with high school principals, counselors, and faculty to promote agriculture and agriculture-related disciplines to students, and to encourage students to select these majors in college.

Travel is required (30 % of time).

Qualifications Required: Your education and experience will be evaluated against all qualification requirements (basic and any additional requirements) listed below.

Basic Requirements

GS-12 One year of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-11 grade level.

Specialized Experience - experience which has equipped you with the following Knowledge, Skills and Abilities - 'KSAs' required to perform the duties of this position:

1. Ability to communicate, build partnerships, and create collaborative relationships within the academic community, the local community, and government agencies to advance the attainment of higher education.
2. Skill in identifying and effectively addressing the challenges/barriers faced by the Hispanic community in attaining higher education.
3. Ability to engage diverse audiences in order to pursue a recommended course of action.
4. Skill in helping the education community apply promising solutions to problems in particular settings.

Selective Placement Factor(s) - In order to be considered minimally qualified, you must also possess the following:

1. Ability to read, write and speak both English and Spanish fluently.

Other Important Information

Benefits Package:

A Benefits Package is authorized for this position. Additional information about Federal benefits can be obtained at www.usajobs.opm.gov/ei61.htm.
